KISS OPENING LONDON

The Little Black Gallery, one of London's newest photographic galleries, in February launched a new show KISS to celebrate Valentine's Day. The Exhibition featured photographs of kisses by a variety of respected photographers and artists including Deborah Anderson, Giuliano Bekor, Amanda Eliasch, Patrick Lichfield, Craig Lynn, Tony McGee, Patrick McMullan and many others. Also included in the show was an exhibition of classic kissing pictures by the legendary photographer Bob Carlos Clarke (courtesy of the Bob Carlos Clarke Foundation).

The Little Black Gallery is a partnership between Tamara Beckwith, Lindsey Carlos Clarke (widow of the late Bob Carlos Clarke), and Ghislain Pascal (agent of the late Bob Carlos Clarke).
